

2013 Calendar Photo Criteria

Theme: American Water Spaniels...Favorite Shots

Hi Folks! The Health and Genetics Committee would once again like you to get out your cameras and keep them handy for taking special shots! Or, get out those favorite treasured photos of the American Water Spaniel!

The rules for submission are below.

Thank you,

AWSC Inc, Health and Genetics Committee

Photos must include an American Water Spaniel and may include animal friend(s) and people!

If you have old photos to share, please scan a copy. Small ones should be scanned at as high of a resolution as possible. It is not necessary to reduce the size of your photos to submit them. If you have an 8X10 photo, you should scan at no less than 300 dpi, a 4X6 photo at 1200 dpi, if possible.

For current photos, the guidelines are as follows:

1. Photos may only be submitted by AWSC Members.
2. Photos submitted must contain the American Water Spaniel and may include both animal and human friends.
3. Every photo submitted must be taken by an AWSC member or member of the immediate family, with the exception of photos taken by a professional photographer.
4. AWSC members must own the dog whose photo is taken by a professional photographer. It must be submitted with signed permission from the photographer for the Club to use in the calendar.
5. All photos should be submitted by e-mail or CD.
6. No names or kennel names will be used with photos in the calendar.
7. Images for the 2013 calendar will be chosen for quality and creativity.
8. A maximum of three photos may be submitted per member.
9. Photo Guidelines:
  - It will not be necessary to reduce the size of your photos to submit them.
  - We can accept files with the following extensions only: tif, jpg, bmp, and eps.
  - It is important to note that if you crop an 8 megapixel photograph and it must be enlarged to fill a page, your resolution will drop considerably depending on how small you have cropped the original photo.
  - Adjust your digital camera to the highest resolution and quality possible.
  - Only high quality images can be used on full page.

Entries must be received before 11:59 P.M. EDT on April 30, 2012. We plan to have calendars available at the AWSC Nationals on August 8 – 12, 2012, at New London, WI.

With your entry, include the following information: Name, Address, City, State, Zip Code, E-mail Address and Telephone Number.
